

Garden

Written by Jervis Campbell

Well my heart beckons me again
To find some kind of serenade for you
The one I love oh I do

But all the words I could ever say
Will fall short of your lovely ways
And I just stand here so amazed by you

From the garden
To the shadows
Every heartbeat
Belongs to you
Like a sharpened arrow
Oh you guide me
You send me through
Though I started so shallow
Deeper you call me down
And when its hardest to follow
I'll remember
To hold up the crown

And how to handle your imminence
But bow beneath the extravagance
And still you stand here with open arms

And its you, you never let go of me
Its true, and the truth is what sets me free
And all, all my love is here

From the garden
To the shadows
Every heartbeat
Belongs to you
Like a sharpened arrow
Oh you guide me
You send me through
Though I started so shallow
Deeper you call me down
And when its hardest to follow
I'll remember
To hold up the crown

(Solo)

From the garden
To the shadows
Every heartbeat
Belongs to you
Like a sharpened arrow
Oh you guide me
You send me through
Though I started so shallow
Deeper you call me down
And when its hardest to follow
I'll remember
To hold up the crown
