

You Remain

Written by Jervis Campbell

Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
You stay the same
You remain

Days of my youth
Where you going now?
Going to?
Won't even say goodbye

And there's no use
In letting tears fall
When knowing you
Gets better in time

Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
You stay the same
You remain

And I met you in the valley
And I heard your truth
And in my soul it stuck

And soon it grew
Pushing out the pieces of
My broken roots
Oh what is this love?

Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
You stay the same
You remain

Holy
You cover me
Holy
You're everything
Holy
You're all I need

Holy
You're all I see

Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
Though it all fades away
You stay the same
You remain
